GOLF TOURNAMENT

We will be playing at the Oaks Golf Course. A shotgun start will be utilized. Sign up as a single player ($100) or register a team ($400)! If you are attending the conference as well, then please use the registration system for the conference.

Whether you're a duffer seeking to break 100 or a scratch golfer looking to gain a competitive edge, The Oaks is a stunning course. Enjoy tree-lined fairways, rolling hills and breathtaking vistas of the Lake of the Ozarks. Tee off on The Oaks, with 18 challenging holes with playful approaches, 60 bunkers and water hazards.

KEYNOTE SPEAKERS

Plenary Session: Chet W. Sisk will cover the latest trends changing the future of work relating to Solid Waste Industry professionals, environmental recycling, the new opportunities in climate crisis and personal skills employees will need to thrive and succeed in the new world. He will communicate a new way to empowerment for the participants in a time of massive change.

Monday Lunch Speakers:
Missouri Waste Diversion:
The Foundation for Sustainable Business Operations

Bass Pro Shops Facility team will share how the company puts sustainability into action through disciplined and purposeful use of resources consumed as we conduct business. We'll present the 5 R's of sustainability, Reduce, Reuse, Recycle, Repair, and Retain, and share examples and measured results of the company's resource conservation efforts.

Dan Hoy, Director of Facilities - Dan's career spans more than 40 years with Bass Pros Shops

Monica Hammon, Facilities Manager - Monica has worked for and with Bass Pro Shops Cabela's for 30 years.

Enjoy the music of Rick Lamb, guitarist during the Sunday reception.
